Administration

Mr. Elmo S. Allgood has served as principal of Eastern High School for nine years. His understanding of human nature, his experience as an educator and as an administrator contribute to his invaluable leadership. Dedicated to the school and its needs, he constantly seeks ways to make it more meaningful to every student and to the community.

In Memoriam

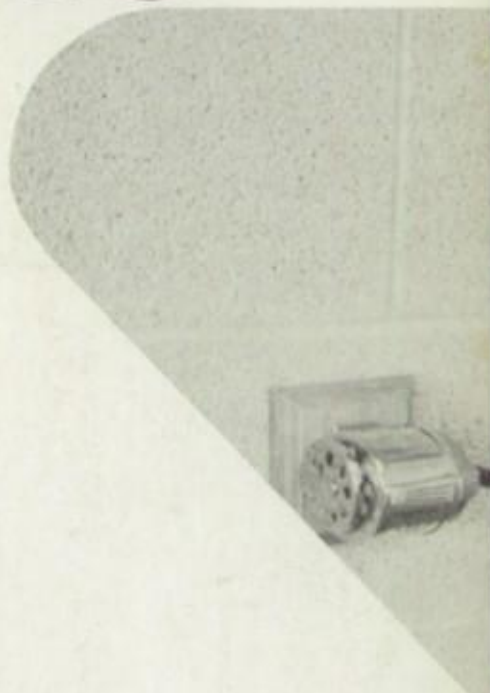

Mrs. Clydie Moser

The administration, members of the faculty and the student body of Eastern High School were fortunate to have had Mrs. Clydie Moser for the cafeteria manager for three years. The untimely death of one so young has left a feeling of sadness mingled with a sense of appreciation for the privilege of having known her. Her patience, her concern for the welfare of others, her devotion to duty and her pleasant manner will serve as an inspiration for all.

ACADEMICS

Art Department

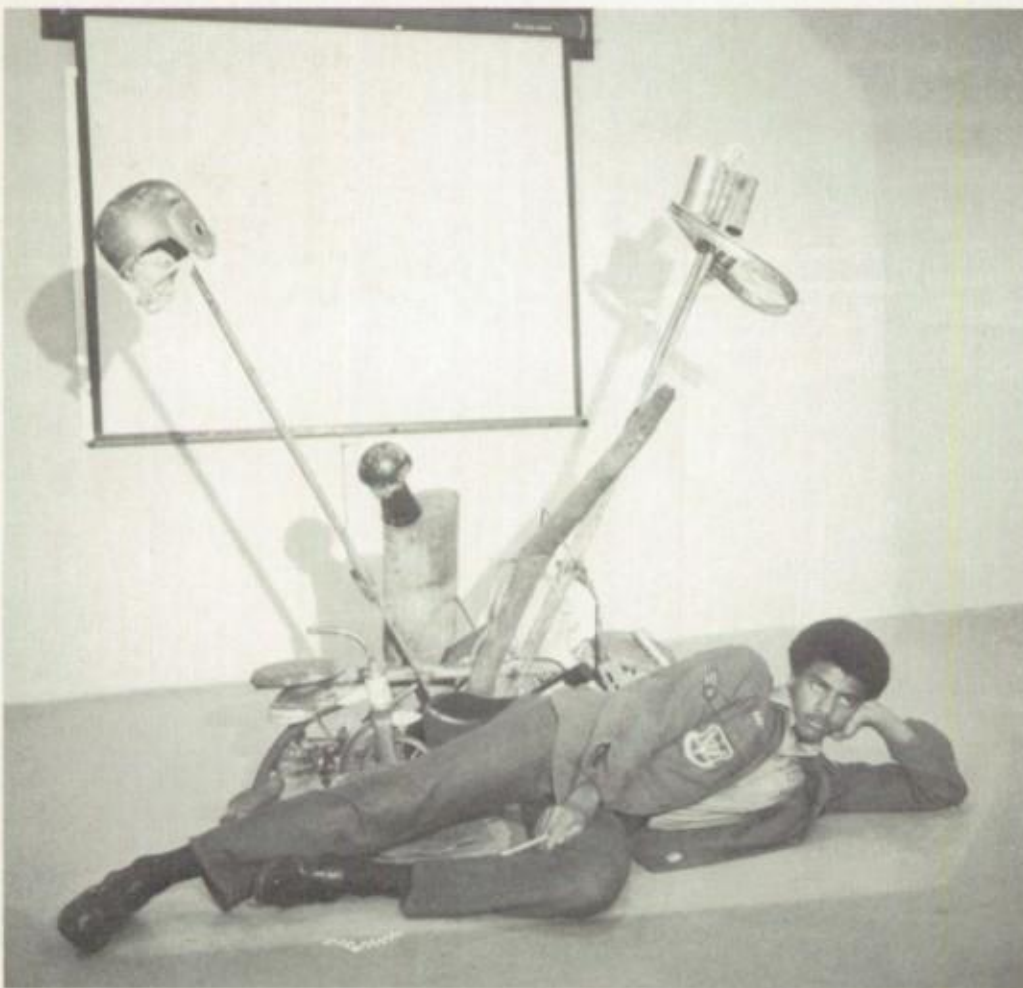

Eastern's art students learn to express themselves creatively through the uses of many art media. They learn composition, color, design, pattern, values, mass, line, texture, space and shape. This course gives them an opportunity to develop natural abilities and art appreciation as well as contributing to the attractiveness of the school.

Mike Miller and Butch Thomas pencil sketch in the library.

Bill Vincent and Lawrence Massey design cover for the Alamance County Curriculum Bulletin.

Rickey Haith poses for contour line drawing.

Nancy Poole completes her entry for the Eastern Art Festival.

Auto Mechanics

Ralph Riggs makes a preparation of fiberglass for a fender.

Mr. Smith teaches students to adjust valves.

Students in Auto Mechanics are in the process of rebuilding a motor.

Students put finishing touches on a rebuilt motor.

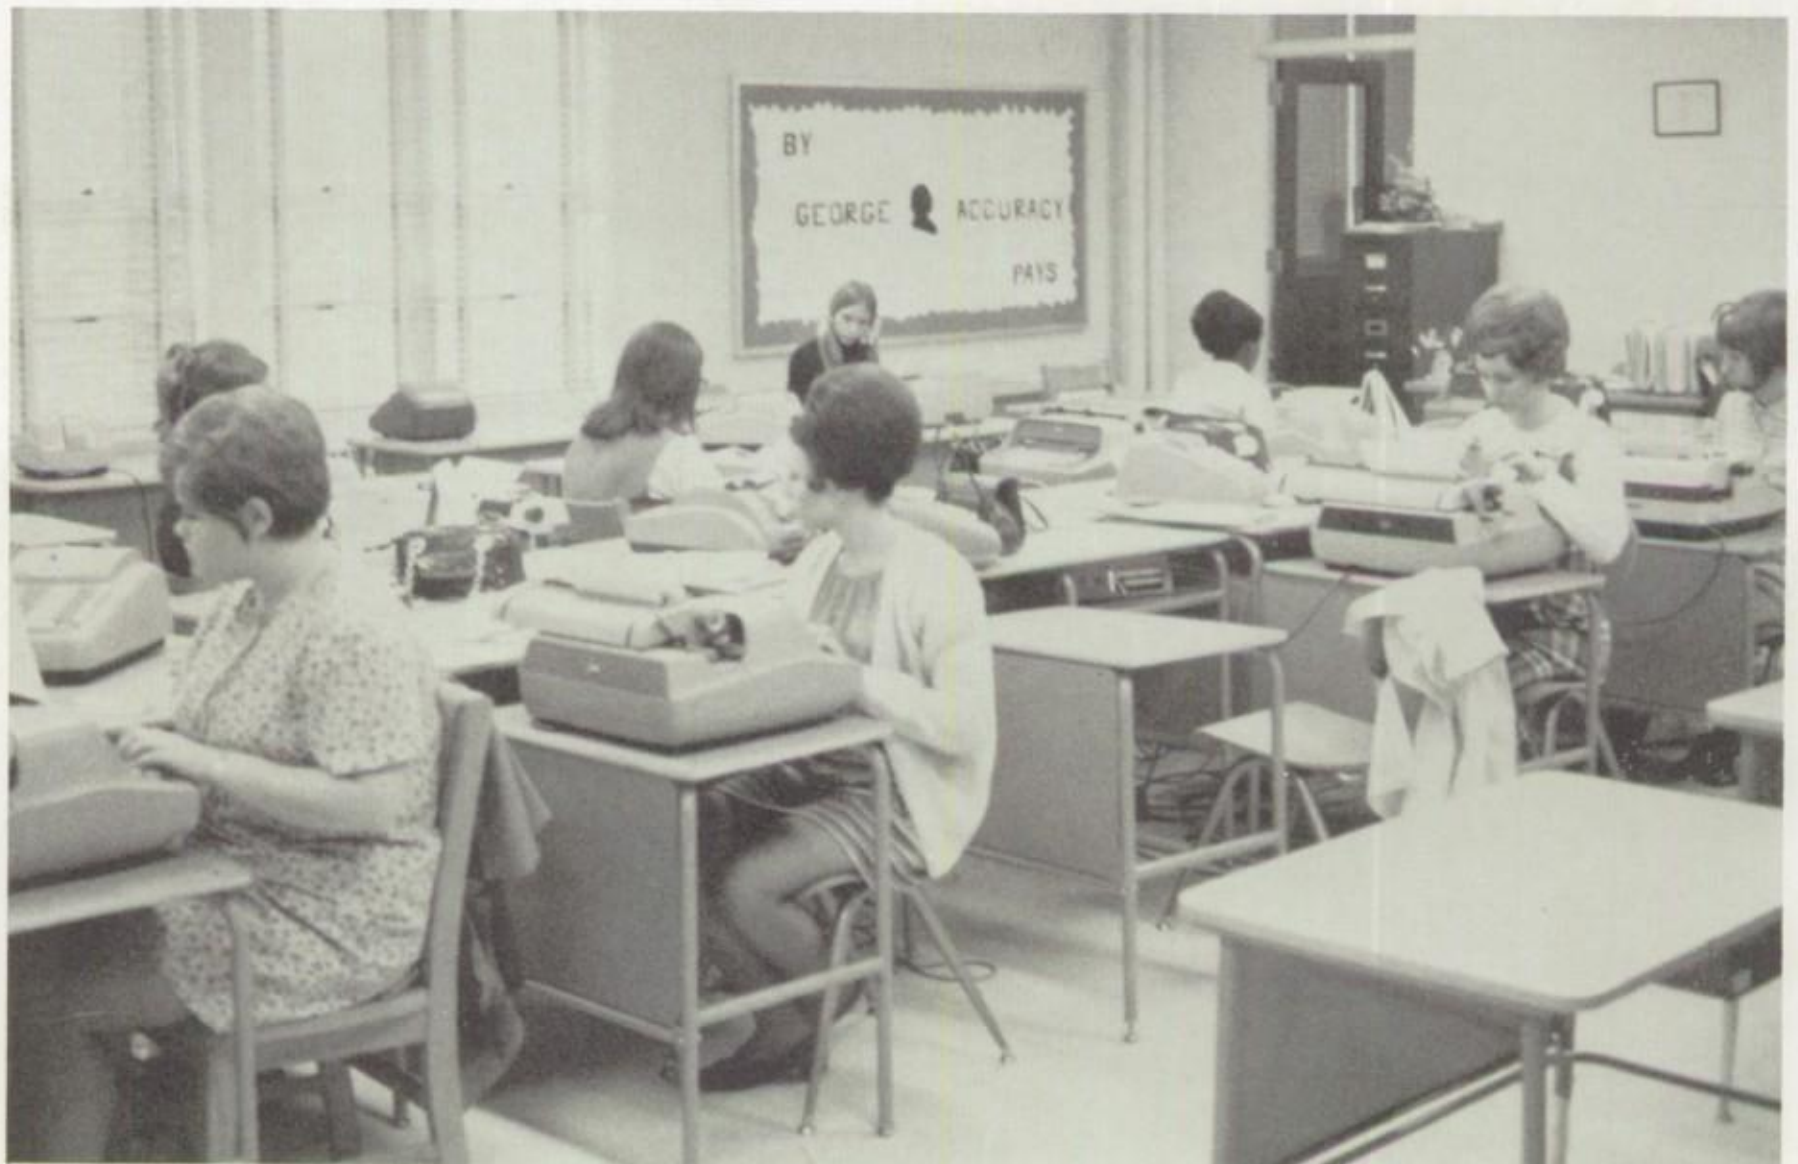

Business Education

The Business Education Department offers basic courses in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, personal typing, and notehand. In the advanced courses such as Shorthand II, Typing II, and Vocational and Co-operative Office Practice special emphasis is placed on training students in a marketable skill.

The following types of equipment are available for training: manual, electric, Selectric, and Executive typewriters; rotary, printing, and electronic calculators; duplicating, mimeographing, and copying equipment; bookkeeping and posting machines; dictating and transcribing equipment; and ten-key and full-keyboard adding machines.

Sylvia Tingen gains valuable experience while helping Mrs. Watkins, secretary at the Woodlawn Middle School.

Office Practice students prepare for future employment in the business world.

Distributive Education

The D.E. department emphasizes on-the-job training. Students learn salesmanship, advertising, marketing, merchandising, economics, and business psychology. Distributive Education teaches its pupils to strive for futures as desirable employees with saleable skills.

Stanley Rice, Ted Kerley and Dean Warren sort forms for the preparation of a student directory.

D.E. students learn the proper techniques of advertising layout.

Ronnie Enoch, Francine Ruffin, and Sharon Cobb complete their work employment sheets each week.

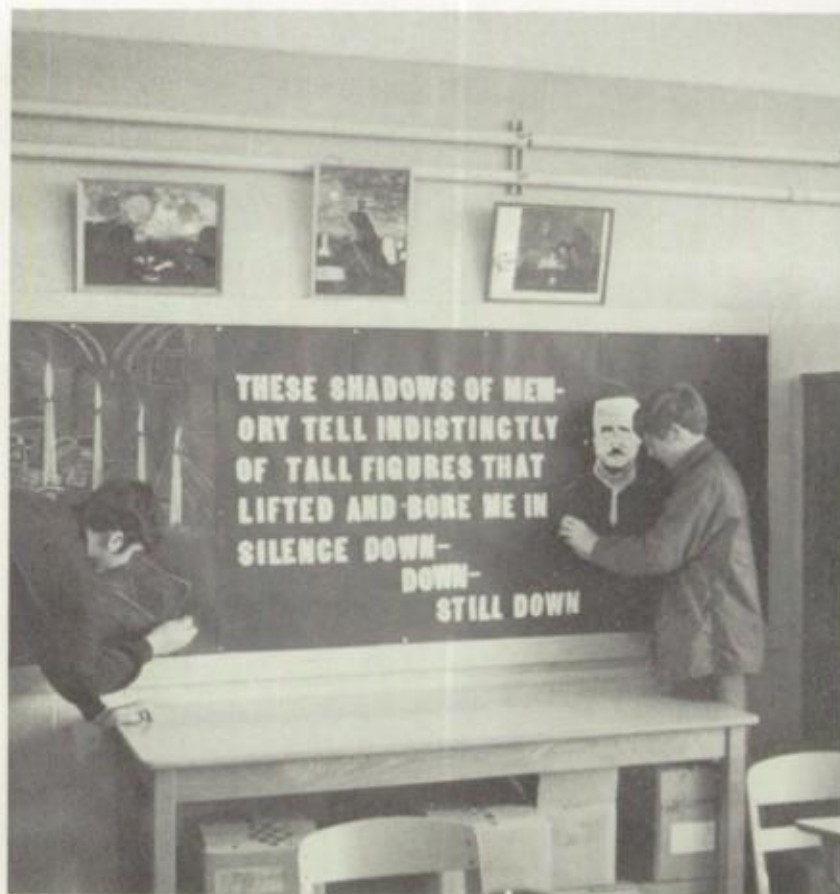

English: Emphasis on Literary Heritage

A widening of horizons is experienced through reading, writing, discussion and oral expression in the English department.

Student publications create interest in self-expression and in various types of literary work.

Sophomore students carry on an informal discussion.

Bob Amick and David Harris find that author, Edgar Allan Poe, provides an interesting topic for a bulletin board.

Freshmen, guided by Mrs. Spaulding, explore the world of literature.

Amy Williams, Leslie Williamson and Steve Hartley dramatize Shakespeare's "Macbeth".

Foreign Language: Key to Mutual Understanding

The Foreign Language Department of Eastern seeks to provide instruction in the language of France and Spain, and to involve the students in the study of the cultural aspects of these countries. With modern transportation constantly bringing the areas of the world closer together, it has become imperative to familiarize our youth with the language, customs, habits, and policies of countries which in the near future will be neighbors. If we hope to promote better understanding with these people who will be too close to be "foreigners", our language department will expand each year.

Robin Murphy is preparing a report on El Greco for the Spanish III class.

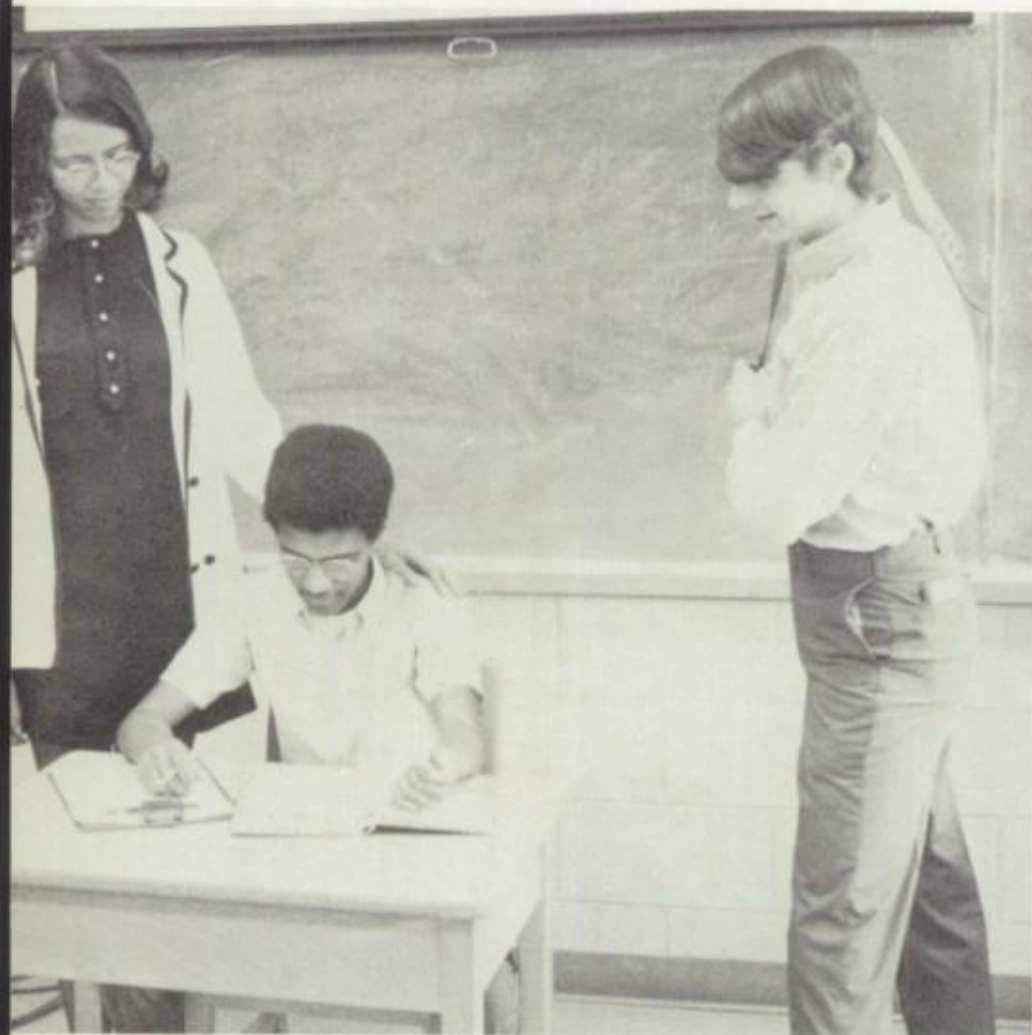

Lynda Ingram gives a report on the Chartres Cathedral to the French Club.

Phyllis Jeffries leads a game in French II class.

Social Studies

The social studies department seeks to make the student aware of his responsibilities as a good citizen. Included in this study is the heritage of the United States. Attention is given to the free enterprise system, political democracy, and the proper ways to institute change if change is warranted.

Ida Enoch, Thaddeus Haith, and Donny Estler dramatize a play in sociology.

Juniors are pleased with large classes as experimental team teaching begins its first year at Eastern.

Home Economics

Home Economics has long been a very challenging and rewarding discipline for both young men and young women. Home Economics training, whether used for a profession, a career, homemaking, effective community membership, or any combination of these, contributes to the personal development of the individual and his preparation for family living and homemaking. Home Ec. prepares students for effective citizenship and the prospect of various careers in a changing society.

Elizabeth McPherson receives sewing instructions from Mrs. Garner.

Family Life students prepare for the future.

Home Ec. II students prepare ceramics.

Industrial

Industrial Arts include forestry, bricklaying, agriculture, drafting, and carpentry. These courses challenge the student with the demand for the use of both one's mental and physical faculties. They not only prepare the student in the execution of skills, but they provide invaluable knowledge where one's future plans are concerned. Industrial Arts courses can be considered the basis for America's industrial, technological, and vocational background.

Jay Rodgers, Larry Pedelty, and Mike Scott measure the diameter of a tree to obtain the board feet of lumber in tree.

Classroom experience teaches students the proper procedure for laying brick.

Taking exact measurements is a fundamental which carpentry students must learn.

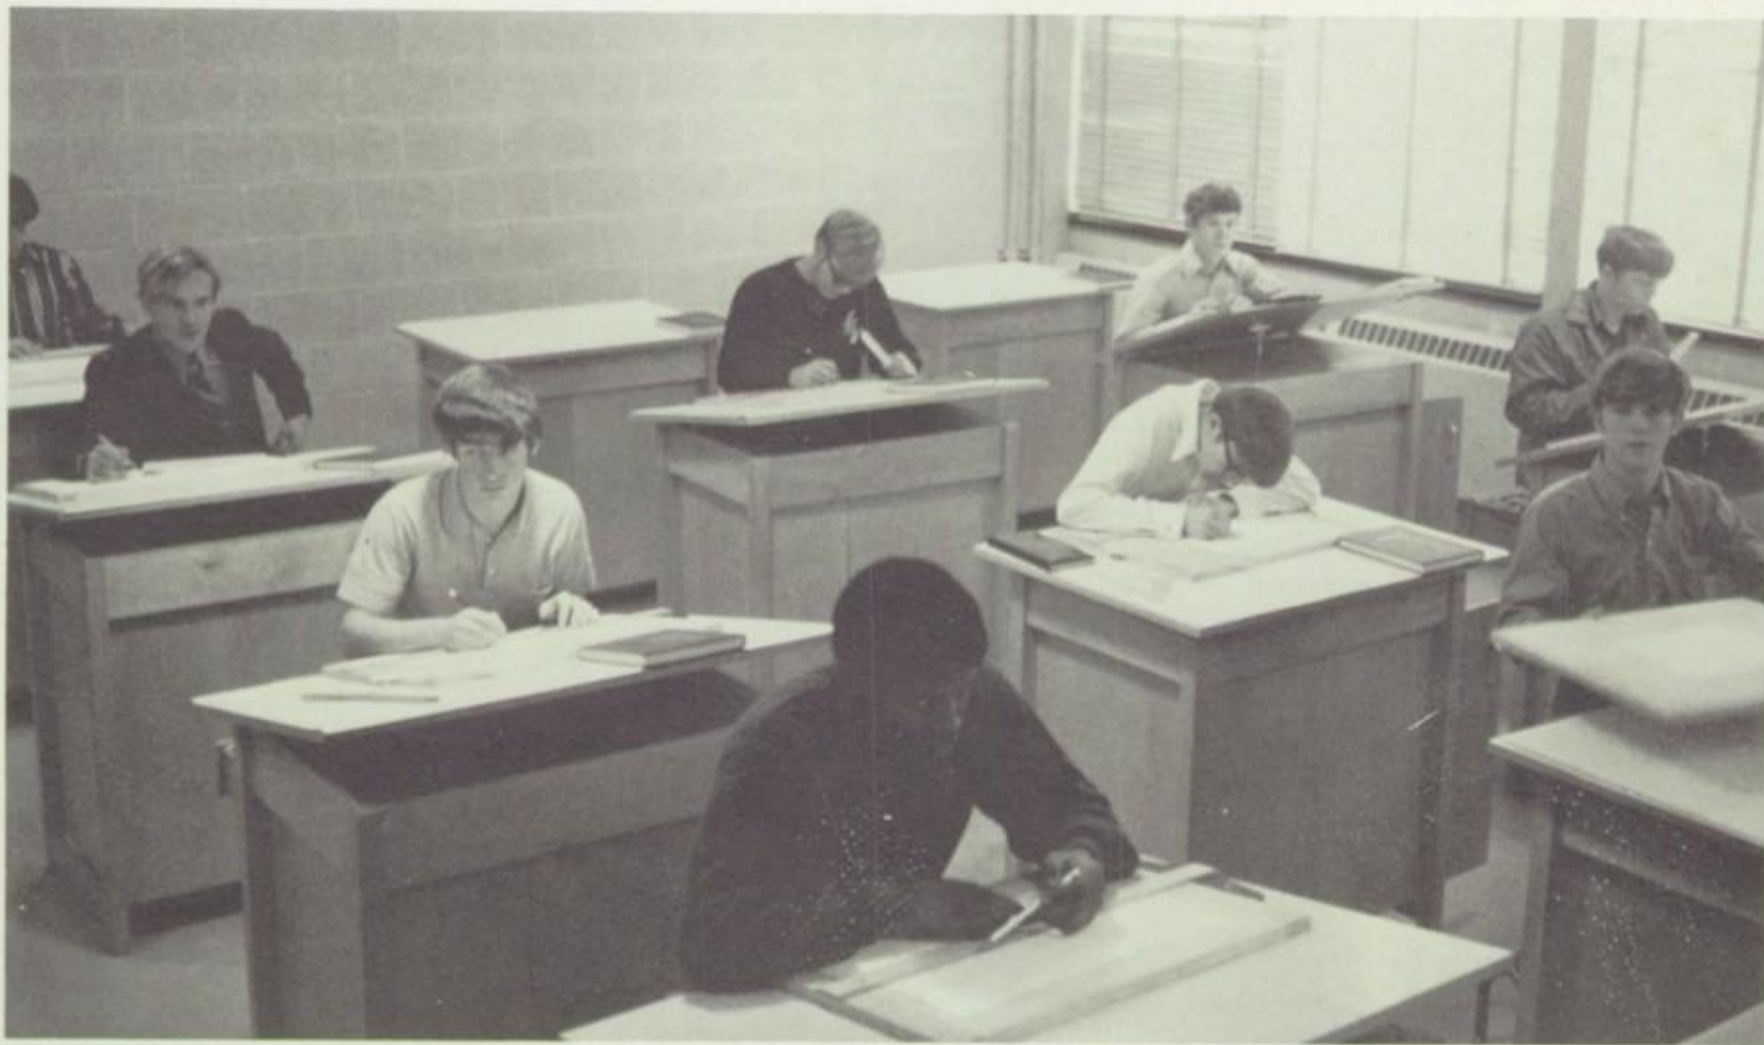

Arts

Learning to repair farm machinery is an important aspect of agriculture.

Ken Edgerton learns the proper way to plant shrubbery in agriculture class.

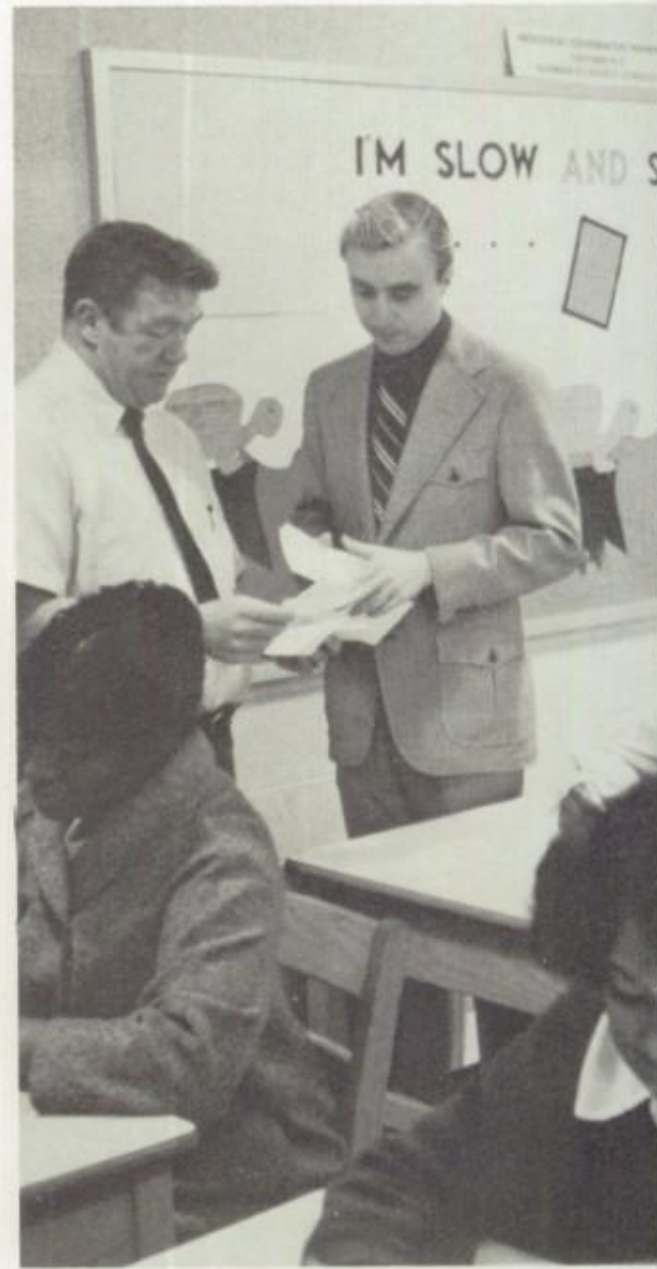

Drafting students learn skills and techniques which will be useful in the future.

Larry Crisp arranges some helpful information on the bulletin board.

I.C.T.

I.C.T., which stands for Industrial Cooperative Training, performs a vital and important service to the students. Through its efforts to obtain jobs for the students, the course of study helps to mold the character of the adolescent and prepare him for the outside world. The pupils listen and learn much-needed information in the classroom, and ultimately apply this knowledge to their future employment.

Mr. Brady and Mr. Primm discuss some tactics in the classroom while the pupils finish work.

The seriousness and time consummation of I.C.T. is shown by B. Vanhook, C. Gant, J. Yellock, and A. Leath.

Mathematics

Advanced math students learn from each other during spare time.

Consumer math students gain practical knowledge of income tax forms.

The math department offers the students of Eastern a variety of math courses. These courses range from general math to calculus. Through these courses the student develops a fundamental background in math as well as advanced concepts in numbers. This training helps to prepare the student for collegiate, commercial, and scientific fields.

Mrs. Gardner gives additional help to Terry James, Dan Thomas, Nanette Ragan, and Johnny Crawford.

Physical Education

Students in Mrs. Carden's advanced P.E. class learn to square dance.

Dan Thomas, Pete Burnette, Roger Shields, Hubert Brown, and Wayne Hester were among the winners of the United State Marine Corps Physical Fitness test.

Building, preserving, molding . . . Physical education helps to build one's mind as well as one's body, by presenting it with the vigorous exercises of the course. It also serves to prepare the body or make it capable of taking the strain of everyday activities, and it molds one into the adult, that someday he will ultimately become. Physical fitness is definitely emphasized and good health is obviously promoted.

Freshman boys go through their usual portion of calisthenics before beginning basketball games.

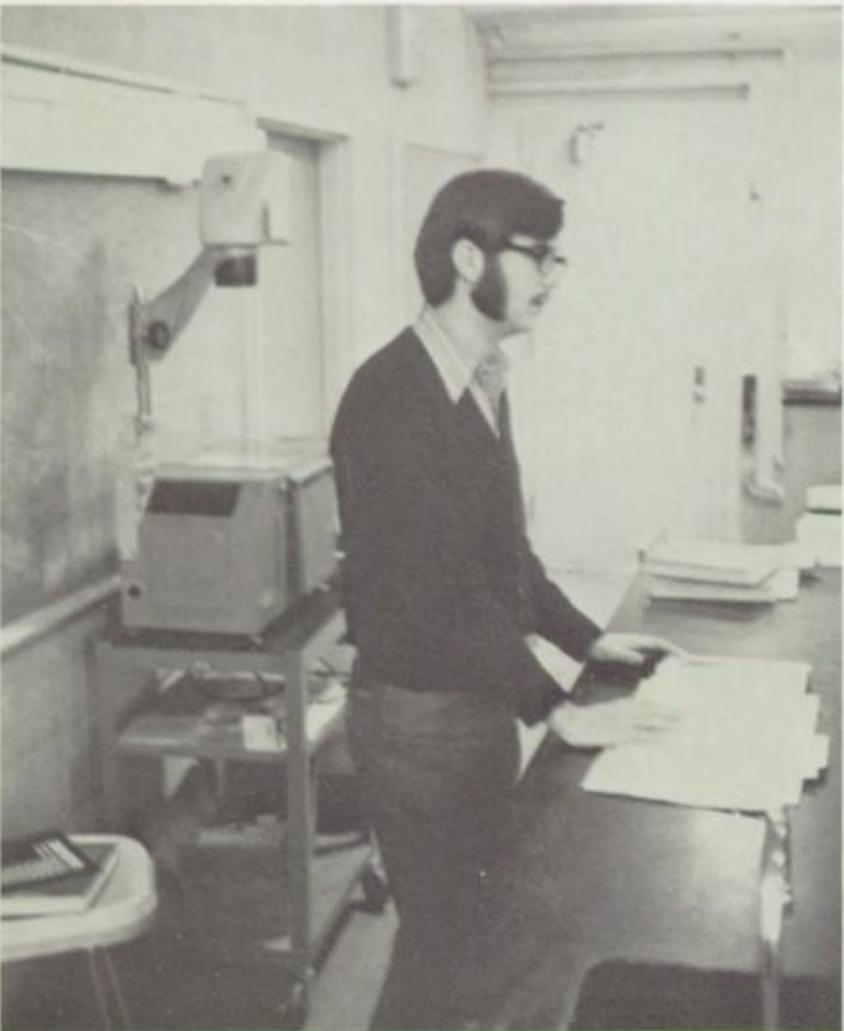

Freshman girls increase their sense of balance by building pyramids.

Science

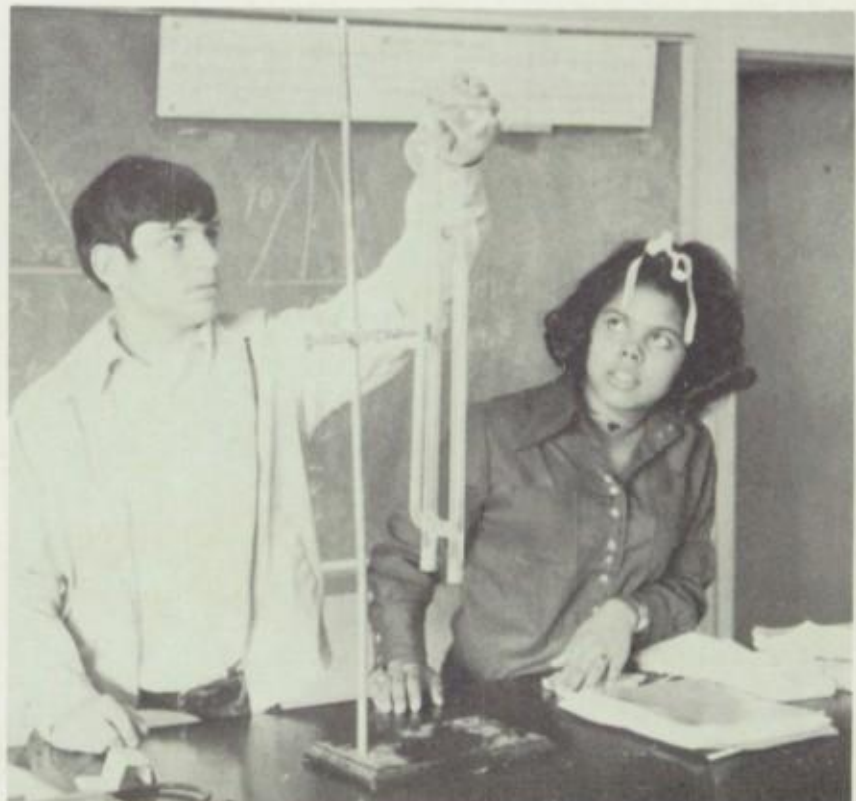

The dissection of a frog enables Sharon Raines and Linda Tripp to relate their observations to the functions of the human body.

Jeff Jeffreys presents his physics research report to the class.

Ernie Keck, Toni Bader, Mike Wilkerson, and Don Raines find experiments in the chemistry lab challenging.

Eastern Eagles—Mid-State Champs 1970

Football 1970, the great bird soars. It flapped its wings with a distinctive flutter, a loss to West Forsyth, but it was only learning. It was destined for success. On its next flight it tolled the bell of victory — Southeast bowed to Eastern. Now it was on its way with all the strength and spirit of a great school behind it. What could stop the Eagles? Three more victories, Eastern over Ragsdale, Eastern over Bartlett-Yancey, Eastern over Southern, and then . . . the great bird collapsed . . . Western over Eastern . . . but what was a minor defeat in a field of success! The Eagle took it in its stride, cleaned its wounds, and returned to the race. No mountain was insurmountable. The Eagle once again tasted of victory . . . Eastern over Northwest, Eastern over Morehead, Eastern over Northeast. Eastern . . . Mid-State Champs.

The play-offs, cold, scary, the air of anticipation, the Eastern Eagles vs. the Monroe Rebels. The battle was fought with pride and skill on each side, and in the end the Rebels had conquered but not before the Eagle had left its mark.

It was once said of Caesar "And the elements so mixed in him that all the world could stand and say this was a man." So it can be said of the 1970-71 Eagle Cagers. This was a team. This was a season. A season of disappointments and losses — of dreams — of hopes. The season started on a hopeful note with a win over Northwest Guilford. The Eagles were happy. Then came defeat and the ominous power lingered throughout the season. But if it can be said that one is great in victory, then one must be even greater in defeat. And the Eagles were. They fought with all the zeal and desire of the proud name which they carried. This was a year. This was a team made even greater by the character they possessed and the hardness with which they fought.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Eastern's baby eagles experienced a good season. After three exciting victories, the eagles fell prey to Graham, but the eagles were not to be stopped. Fighting and working together as a team, the young eagles managed to show great skill and form. In spite of defeats, good sportsmanship was never lacking. The baby eagles beat Southern in the last game of the regular season and advanced to the tournament, losing to Ragsdale by a very small margin.

Armon Pride — most valuable participant in the City-County Track Meet.

Eastern's champion track team enjoyed another successful season. Led by returning lettermen, Armon Pride and Larry Pedelty, and a host of other members, the track team faced their opponents with talent and optimism. It can truly be said that each member of the team put forth his best, and with many rewarding results. While defeating their foes, the track team successfully managed to combine teamwork, skill, and ambition.

With the return of spring came the return of the all-American baseball and thirteen players from last year's team. Only nine newcomers completed the 22-member team. The strength of the opponents brought challenge to the team and to the individuals. In spite of the windy days, dust in the eyes, sore arms and swollen palms, the boys performed with the zeal and pride of all true Eastern athletes. The season ended successfully, coupled with a sad goodbye to sports at Eastern for many senior boys.

Eastern's wrestling team boasted the best record of any winter sport. The Eagle wrestlers gave daring exhibitions of their talents on their way to finishing second only to Ragsdale. Their practice sessions seemed to pay off and they were blessed with victory after victory. Many boys even experienced an almost undefeated season. This season also seemed to bring something new for the wrestlers — crowds. People really began to take notice of the efforts the boys put forth and soon learned to appreciate the sport. Motivated by pride and skill, the wrestlers pinned their way to a successful season.

The J.V. Cheerleaders were really on the move this year. Chants and cheers could be heard throughout the halls as they practiced to make their squad perfect. They combined their skills and personalities to present a picture of togetherness and quality. Their hard work and unceasing energy served as a great source of inspiration to their teams. The J.V.'s indeed, played a vital part in building school spirit.

Tennis

Tennis proved to be one of the most popular of the spring sports, and also one of the most vigorous. The tennis team was in a remake-rebuilding season since the squad was relatively non-existent last season. For a young team, the boys played remarkably well. Inexperience gave way to enthusiasm, an enthusiasm which created much pride in its members and the coaching staff.

After losing its starting five, the golf team jumped into competition with little experience. Although the squad was hampered by inexperience, the boys represented the school well. They took the victories with honor and the defeats with dignity. They showed the all-around good sportsmanship and skill that makes an athlete known.

Homecoming Queen
1971
Sue Tripp

THE HOMECOMING COURT OF 1971: C. Baynes, A. Pride; B. Clark, D. Thomas; B. Enoch, G. Snipes; R. Murphy, W. Mehring; D. Pickard, D. Sykes; A. Russell, G. Bullard; S. Tripp, E. Haley; D. Turner, A. Wade.

Carolyn Baynes, Maid of Honor, receives a corsage from her escort Armon Pride as Mr. Allgood looks on.

HOMECOMING . . . the time of the year when alumni return to their Alma Mater for a reunion of friends, to enjoy a football game, and to honor a new homecoming queen.

At half-time, a parade of convertibles carrying eight lovely senior girls, accompanied by club sponsors, graced the field. Each girl, a queen in her own right, shivered with excitement and the chilly night air. The votes which had been cast by the students themselves on that day would now be revealed. Anticipation and then the realization . . . the announcement . . . The Maid of Honor is . . . the new Homecoming Queen of Eastern High School is . . .

Principal Elmo Allgood crowns the new queen, Miss Sue Tripp.

Miss Eastern

1971

Twenty-one girls, all evening dresses, curls, and sparkling eyes vied for the title of Miss Eastern 1971. Anticipation was high as each contestant walked the runway to take her seat and await the outcome of the festivities. After the talent presentation and much deliberation among the judges, the announcements were made. Ann Russell was honored with the title of Miss Congeniality. Donna Pickard, Melba Newlin, and Gloria Young were well-chosen as the runners-up, while Mary Rudd was crowned Miss Eastern High School 1971. Steve Porter acted as master of ceremonies.

Mary Rudd, Miss Eastern 1971.

Contestants in the Miss Eastern Pageant chose Ann Russell as Miss Congeniality.

TALENT SHOW WINNERS: Sue Tripp, first place; Rose Lloyd and Penny Dixon, second place. Not Pictured: Wilson Jeffreys, third place.

Nancy,

It has been great this past year in English, and History. I hope we will have some classes together next year. Don't mess around with "Fred", o.k.? Good luck in the future and may God Bless you. See you this summer.

Love ya

Nancy,

I really don't know you that well
except for the classes we take together.
Best wishes to you in the future.

TAKE SOME OF YOUR MONEY OUT OF THE BANK AND PUT IT IN A MATTRESS.

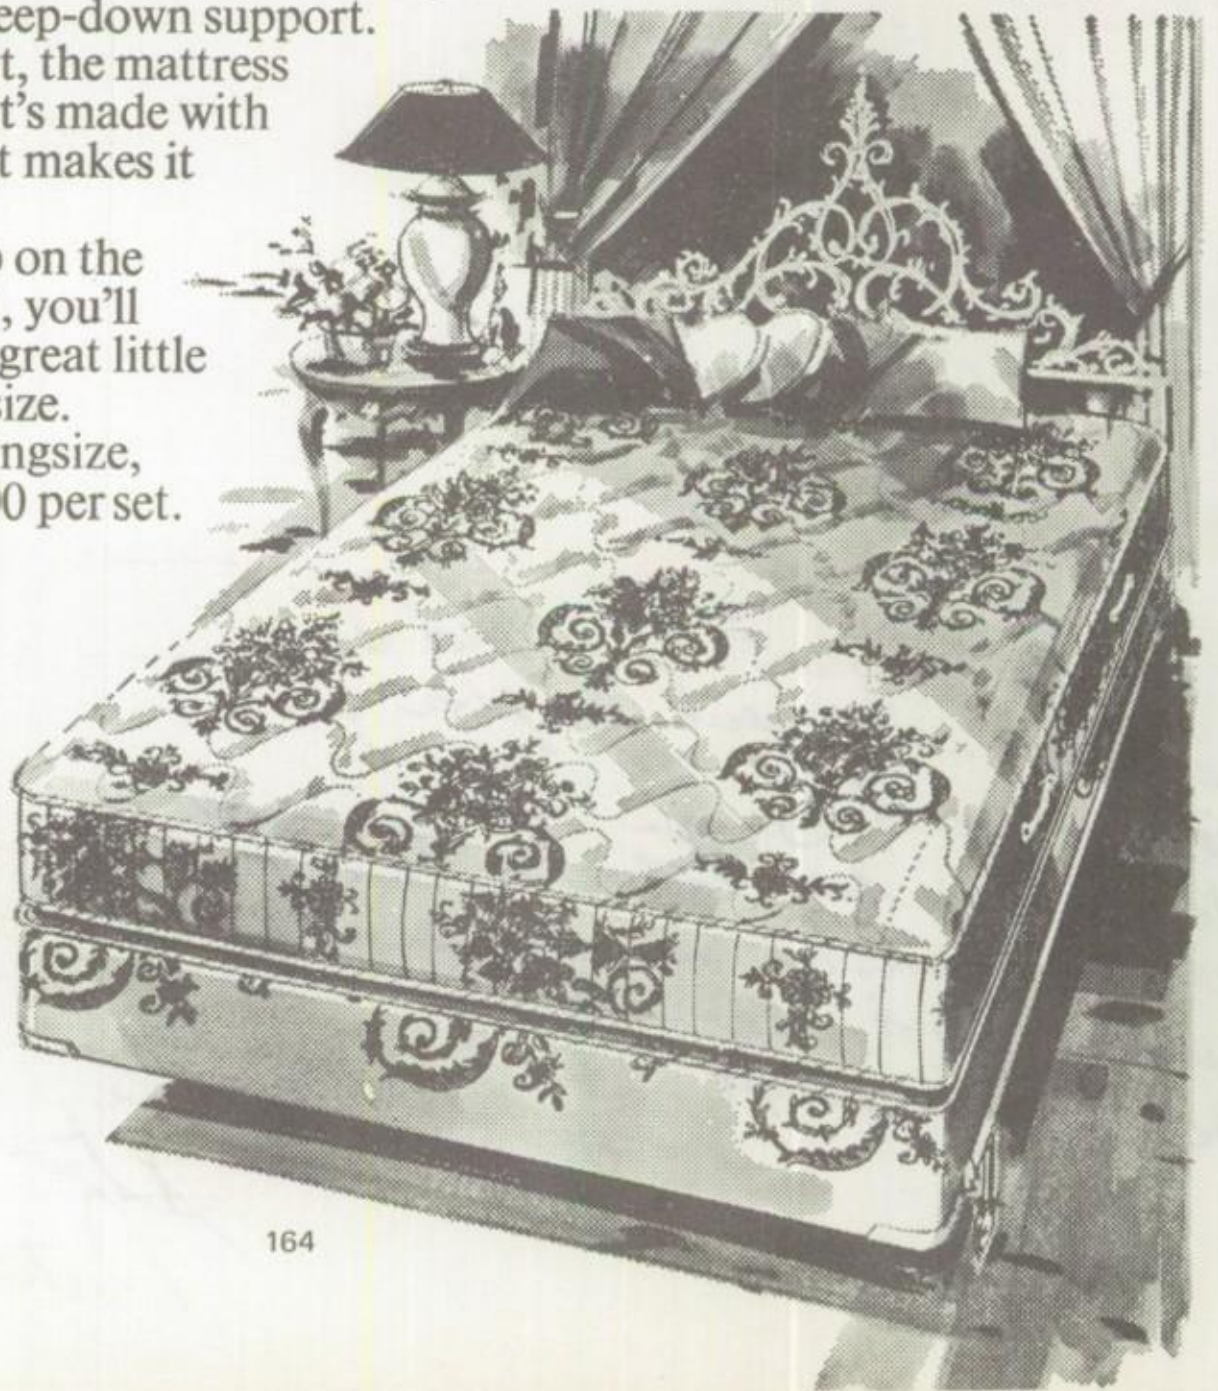

Here's one investment you won't lose any sleep over. And we guarantee that it will give you firm support for twenty years.

Now, that's some guarantee. But the new Kingsdown Crown Imperial is some mattress. It has layer after layer of foam that provides gentle comfort right next to you, while special steel coils give you deep-down support.

But with all that support, the mattress is extremely lightweight, because it's made with synthetic filling material. And that makes it completely allergy free.

The first night you sleep on the new and different Crown Imperial, you'll know you've put your money in a great little mattress. Or a kingsize. Or queensize. Standard Size, $99.50 per unit. Kingsize, $399.00 per set. Queensize, $269.00 per set.

Oto been fun
getting to know you in chemistry
this year. you'll be a big fr.
next year and
you'll love it.
Hope you'll have as much fun as I did. See ya at the pool. God Bless you
Love ya
Michelle

Those were the days
my friend.

We thought they'd never end,

We'd sing and dance
forever and a day,

We'd live the life we choose,

We'd fight and never lose,

For we were young and sure to have our way.

Those were the days . . .

Oh yes, those were the days.

The 1971 SIGMA Staff would like to express appreciation and gratitude to:

Mr. C. F. Dover for his time, patience, and photography.

Mr. William Lynch and American Photographic Services for expert photography.

Mr. Elmo Allgood, the faculty members, and the staff members of Eastern for their understanding and co-operation.

Mr. Tom Smith, Delmar Representative, for guidance and advice.

Mrs. Kathey Skakle for the use of her room each afternoon.

Mrs. Mae Edla Shaw and Miss Spencer Thomas for their patience, time, unlimited assistance, and untiring effort.

The students of Eastern High School for helping us to make the 1971 SIGMA a reality and for giving us a reason to have a SIGMA.

Nancy,
Well another year has flown by. I can't believe it!
We've really enjoyed getting to know you during these past years. It is so funny that we are always getting clothes alike and every Sunday we meet at church. Well we hope to see you this summer. Best wishes to you in whatever you plan for the future. May as bright as you are and life will have much to offer you

Nancy,
It has been great this year! All of the fun we had going to the school play
and "Weathering Heights". It has been great getting to know you better.
Best wishes and
good luck.

Nancy Corbette, you STUPID!!

It was TERRIBLE being in the same English class with you this year. But strangely fun. I wish you luck, you do need it. Ha!

Jo Ellen Black

Nancy,

It has been great knowing you this year. You are a very cute and sweet girl. And I think the world of you. Stay cute and sweet always. Hope we will be in some classes together next year. Be good this summer and see you.

Nancy, To a very sweet, cute, lovable, friend whom I've enjoyed picking on this year. Really your a nice girl whom I really like to get to know. I hope we fun tonight. (clean night fun). Just kidding, but I really do like you and always will.

All-American Al Allen

P.S. I've enjoyed seeing you at school also, and I really hope to see you more this summer. Really, your really cool, and I hope you stay that way. Be good to me especially, (and no one else.) Also as you know by now, I'm not a annual writer, but what I've said, I really mean. You are a real cool girl, and you like to have fun, just like me, so lets have fun sometimes. Once again your sister Terry is really clean, if you know what I mean. Your clean and cool, and groovy also. I'm seriously interested in you and would like to get to know you. Nancy, I really don't know what to write, but I really do like you, I'm sure and hope to see you this summer, (really) as a big Junior and me as a big All America Al Allen sophomore.

Nancy,

I don't know you very well but maybe come next year we will have some classes together. It's been great seeing you during classes. Be Sweet as you already are.

Good friend

Kisha

Nancy,
I enjoyed being in the same French class with you & Steve's mother. Have fun this summer.

Nancy,
I don't get to see you no more. But you're still the sweetest girl I know. I wish you the happiness. Best of luck in the years to come.

Love,
Cyrena

Nancy,
Those lunch games were really great. Those stacking pillow fights between me & ya. I would don't see ya summer. I'm gonna get this if ya don't bring ya over. Lots of love Marilyn S.

Now that we can't take Chemistry next year to. Be great being in your future years at Easter. Mike W.

To a very nice girl. I've enjoyed knowing you
this year and the years before. Hope to see you during the summer.
Good luck

Nancy,

So a sweet and intelligent redhead. Of course, I don't know many redheads then, do I?
I hope we'll have a happy
summer ahead and better times.

Love,

Nancy,
as his year sure has went fast and I've enjoyed it even more seeing and talking to you at school. lots hard for me to meet people who aren't fake and try to act themselves but I think you really are a sweet girl and you act so friendly, I don't see you this summer maybe I'll see you next year
